THE WARSAW EAST EUROPEAN REVIEW

The WEEReview presents the articles concerning post-communist world – its politics, history, economics, cultural and linguistic issues. The WEEReview publishes the best papers presented by the participants of the annual Warsaw East European Conference, which gathers scholars from the region (the post-Soviet countries, East-Central Europe, the Balkan countries, Turkey) as well as those from other regions (Western Europe, the U.S., Australia and Canada). Current issue of WEEReview presents the papers from several previous conferences. In the review they have been grouped according to the geographical key in the follow sections: East-Central Europe, Russia, South Caucasus, Turkey and Central Asia.
